we come to Houston, of Texas fame. His father was Irish, his mother Scotch. Winfield Scott was the grandson of an Englishman. In the Civil War 300,000 English, Irish, Scotch and Canadians fought. A score of famous men on each side of the struggle who were born under the Union Jack might be given. Sheridan, Thomas, Logan, and Shields are instances. Pinkerton, founder of the great detective agency, and chief of the Secret Service, was a Scot.

Turning to statecraft, the names may be mentioned of Alexander Hamilton, one of the greatest geniuses of his century, whose father was a Scot; Ben Franklin, the son of an Englishman, Patrick Henry also the son of a Scot, Pinckney, son of an Englishman, and four of Washington's Ministers, who were of English birth and parentage. Elbridge Gerry was the son of an Englishman; Callahan was born of Irish parents, as was Andrew Jackson, seventh President of the United States. Andrew Johnson, also of Irish parentage, was seventeenth President of the Republic. President Arthur was the son of an Englishman. In President Roosevelt's Cabinet the Secretary of Agriculture is Mr. James Wilson, while the Speaker of the House of Representatives is D. B. Henderson, a Scot. In the rather small world of American letters we find Washington Irving, the son of English parents; Tom Paine, an Englishman, and Matthew Carey, an Irishman. John Daulop, an Irishman, published the first daily newspaper in the United States, while the greatest journal in the country today, the New York Herald, was established by James Gordon Bennett, a Scotchman.

The Draper family, famous for scientific research, were English. Other honored names are those of Edgar Frisby, Joseph Priestley, Cadwallader Colden, Cooper, and Henshaw. Some of the most distinguished of university lecturers in the United States are not natives of that country, but hail from the Old World. There is a Scotchman and an Irishman at Princeton, a Scotchman at Harvard, a Canadian at University of Michigan, two Welshmen are presidents of two State universities, an Englishman at Harvard, another at Johns Hopkins, and Dr. Fisher, a Canadian, is probably the most distinguished professor that university ever had. So stands the record in war, politics, literature, and science. In business and commerce there are a proportionate number of eminent aliens. Without them all, what would have become of the Americans! In the words of Mr. Weston, "Who are the Americans?"

LATE TELEGRAMS.

Severe Cyclone in the Bay of Bengal.

Calcutta, November 15.—A somewhat severe cyclone is in process of formation in the Bay of Bengal. It is of large extent, and is moving rapidly north, and according to the degree of curvature, it will soon be felt in Orissa, Bengal, and Arakan. The weather in Calcutta is threatening, in sympathy with the cyclone in the Bay.

The Baghdad Railway.

London, November 16.—In view of the hopelessness of obtaining French official participation in the Baghdad railway, the German and French groups have privately arranged that the former is to provide forty per cent. of the capital, and the latter thirty per cent., and the Anatolian Railway ten per cent.

Remember the Name.

YOU may have an attack of diarrhoea, dysentery, or pain in the stomach one of these days, and it will be well to remember the name of a medicine that will cure you. Say it slow—Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy.

ASK ANYONE Who has had occasion to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy for diarrhoea or bowel disorders, and see what they say. No one has ever used this medicine without praising it for its speedy cures. Get a bottle today; it may save a lot of trouble, and perhaps a life. For sale by all chemists and medicine vendors; Watkins Ltd., General Agents.
